

54th NIA National Show & Convention

Logan, Utah (Beehive State)

June 9th – 11th, 2023

The 2023 NIA National Show & Convention will be held June 9 – 11, 2023 in Logan, Utah. Logan is a small city in Cache Valley, a mountain valley located in the heart of the Rocky Mountains. It's an easy 90-minute drive from Salt Lake City's International Airport. The beautiful agricultural valley is nestled between two majestic mountain ranges and home to Utah State University. Logan is surrounded by several bedroom communities and is a slice of Americana that is like a step back in time. The pace is a little slower with many options for things to do. Attendees and their families can stay as busy or relaxed as they choose. Attendees can easily turn this show into a fantastic summer vacation. In addition to the multitude of things to do in the local area, Cache Valley is only 4 hours from Yellowstone & Teton National Parks and about 4 to 5 hours from most of Southern Utah's National Parks.

The show and all meetings will be held at the Cache County Fairgrounds Event Center, a relatively new facility completed in 2018. The building features a 20,000 square foot main hall with LED lighting and skylights for natural lighting. Adjacent smaller rooms will facilitate the Board meeting, Membership meeting, hospitality suites, etc. The building is air conditioned. There will be plenty of nearby parking. Loading and unloading will be at ground level.

The NIA Awards Banquet will be held at the Riverwoods Conference Center, 1.1 miles from the fairgrounds and between the Marriott Springhill Suites and Townplace Suites, our host hotels. There are several other hotels in similar proximity to the fairgrounds. There are RV accommodations at the fairgrounds with WiFi access. Uber, Lyft, taxi and free bus service are all available in the valley.

Since Utah is the "Beehive" state, the "beehive" insulator will be the theme of the show.

Show Facility:

The spacious main hall of the Cache County Fairgrounds Event Center will accommodate 144 sales tables, 30 exhibit tables, plus some relaxation tables and chairs. All sales and exhibit tables will be 30" x 8". The isles and dealer space will be at least 8' wide. Dealers with Insulators, related go-withs, bottles, etc. are all invited. Dealer tables will be $50 each. Optionally, electricity is available for $15 per dealer and must be specified when tables are requested. Exhibit tables are free and include electricity if needed. Those requiring electricity may need a 25' extension cord. All tables will have nice white cloth table covers. While table covers must remain on all tables until the close of the show on Sunday at 1:00 pm. Dealers and exhibitors still setup at that time may keep their table cover(s) free of charge. Staying setup until the close of the show is strongly recommended. We expect many walk-ins on Sunday.

Security will be provided by NIA volunteers. The show hall will be locked during non-show hours and there will be no access. The whole building will be locked outside of meeting times. The show hall will have security cameras recording 24 x 7. The entire building will be reserved for this event and the show hosts will control access.

Dealer & exhibitor table signs will be provided
ID badges will be provided
Hand trucks will be available
Lunch will be available on-site for purchase each day

The admission charge will be $5 per person and free to dealers and exhibitors. Friday, June 9th is NIA day and admittance is limited to NIA members in good standing.

Lodging:

There are two adjacent host hotels, the Marriott Springhill Suites located at 635 South Riverwoods Parkway, (435) 750-5180 and the Marriott Townplace Suites at 488 South Main St., (435) 709-6789, both in Logan, UT 84321. Both are 1.1 miles from the Cache County Fairgrounds and adjacent to the Riverwoods Conference center where the Awards Banquet will be held. The tour bus will leave from the Springhill Suites.

The room rate for show attendees is $139 per night plus tax. There are 70 rooms being held at the Springhill Suites and 40 rooms being held at the Townplace Suites.

The rooms will be held for show attendees until April 7, 2023 at which time they will be released to the public at the prevailing rate at that time (probably much higher). The room rate includes a complimentary hot breakfast, complimentary parking, and complimentary WiFi. The room rate is good from June 6th through June 11th. They will honor that rate for a couple of days prior to the 6th and after the 11th if requested when making the reservation. Cache Valley is a summer tourist destination and all of the hotel rooms in the valley fill very quickly. Be sure to make your reservations early. Also, if you need to cancel a reservation for any reason, please do so as early as possible to free up that room for other attendees. If there are any problems in reserving a room or a need to make arrangements for an extended stay at the show rate please call Hailey Navarro at (801) 961-1005.

For those driving to the show, I-15 runs north and south passing about 30 miles west of the show location. If coming from the north, State Road 30 runs east from I-15 (exit 385) to the center of Logan. If coming from the south, US 89/91 runs northeast from I-15 (exit 362) and into Logan from the south.

For those not driving, there are other transportation options:

Free bus service: <https://www.cvtdbus.org/index.php> (check days, hours, & stops)

Taxi service: Logan Taxi Cab -- (435) 753-3663

Cache Cab, LLC -- (435) 232-7900

Uber and Lyft are also available in the valley

There are numerous restaurants throughout the valley.

It should be a very pleasant time of year in Northern Utah

Optional Golden Spike and Northrup Grumman (Thiokol) Rocket Display Tour - Thursday, June 8th

We are offering an optional tour that will take participants to the Golden Spike National Monument and the Northrup Grumman (formerly Thiokol) Rocket Garden. This bus tour will take approximately 7 hours, beginning at the Springhill Suites hotel at 9:00 am.

The Golden Spike National Monument will be the first stop where full scale replicas of the two original Central Pacific and Union Pacific locomotives (Jupiter and No. 119) are rolled out for a live demonstration. The original locomotives met in Promontory, Utah on May 10, 1869 when the East and West tracks of the Transcontinental Railroad met. A “golden spike” was driven to commemorate the event. There are replica poles and insulators from the Transcontinental Telegraph on display as well. There is a museum, gift shop, historic presentations, etc.

A short distance away is the Northrup Grumman (formerly Thiokol) solid rocket motor plant with a full-scale display of many of the rocket motors Thiokol has built over the years. The display includes various satellite motors, defensive missiles, a full-size Space Shuttle booster motor, etc.

A box lunch will be provided. The cost is $35 per person and includes admission. The tour is limited to the 1st 34 people that sign up, but that number may be extended if there is enough interest early on.

GENERAL RULES OF CONDUCT

All participants shall abide by the NIA Code of Ethics. In particular:

Participants shall not knowingly misrepresent the condition, rarity, or value of insulators or related items they offer for sale or trade.

Imitation and Altered insulators or related items may only be brought onto the show premises if they are PERMANENTLY MARKED or embossed so as to indicate their lack of authenticity. While the NIA Code of Ethics requires Imitation and Altered Insulators to be plainly marked "reproduction" and "fake" respectively, it does not require Questionable Insulators (those which may not be Original Insulators), to be permanently marked. The goal of this rule is to cause a prospective purchaser to easily recognize that an item is a reproduction or fake, or to cause them to question its authenticity. Insulators of questionable authenticity should be represented with candor. If not, a Show Organizer(s) can require a participant to remove the item from a sales table. The decision of the Show Organizer shall be final. NIA Board Members attending a NIA sponsored show will provide active assistance, if requested by a Show Organizer, in resolving violations of the NIA Rules.

All restored and/or repaired items on sales tables must be clearly labeled as such.

All show participants and the attending public shall abide by any site-specific show rules set by the Show Organizer(s) including all applicable State laws, local ordinances, restrictions imposed by the owner of the facility, etc.

Positively no public attendance during show setup hours.

"Aisle dealing" by the attending public is discouraged.

It will not be permissible for dealers to "work the aisles" in any fashion which preempts the opportunities of fellow dealers.

Dealer side shows (spotlights, excessive "cow bell ringing," etc.) shall not be carried to the point of being abusive to fellow dealers and the general public.

Dealers will not sublet portions of their reserved tables without first consulting with the show host and obtaining permission. Dealer packets, novelties, etc. will only be given to the dealer reserving the table, not helpers nor other dealers sharing the table. Anyone using part of a dealer's table must also be a NIA member in good standing.

Participants shall keep aisles in front of tables free of boxes and clutter.

Participants are encouraged to cover their unattended tables.

Dealers should keep their sales tables intact until the end of the published show date and time. There may be exceptions made for those driving long distances or needing to make other travel connections, but advance arrangements should be made with the Show Organizer(s) when reserving the table. The Show Organizer(s) reserves the right to locate such tables on the outer aisles or near exits to avoid disruption of the rest of the show with any early departures. The Show Organizer(s) may announce blanket authority for early takedown at such time as public attendance appears to have ceased.

Participants will be responsible for any damage they do to the facilities with their setup practices (i.e. no signs or other items taped or tacked to walls or furnishings).

The Show Organizer(s) will make every effort to provide good security, but will not be responsible for any loss of participant property due to theft or breakage. Each dealer and exhibitor is asked to help with security by watching after his own items and keeping an eye on adjacent tables.

All National Show dealers, helpers, and exhibitors must be NIA members in good standing. All attendees on NIA day must be NIA members in good standing.

The reservation of a table at a NIA sponsored show constitutes the acceptance of these rules and agreement to comply with them.
